CSE Insurance Services

Dear CSE Customer:

We appreciate the opportunity to serve your insurance needs and provide you with appropriate claim service should the need arise for this service.

We take your personal privacy seriously. Because we value our customer relationship with you, we do not sell customer information or share it with organizations outside our CSE family of companies for their own marketing purposes.

Why are we sending you our Privacy Notice?

A new federal law permits banks, investment companies, and insurance companies to provide financial services. This same law requires CSE to share in writing our attached Privacy Notice annually with you.

This federal law does not apply to our efforts to market products or services to you. We may send you information about CSE insurance and financial products that we believe may suit your needs.

Protecting customer information

Privacy has always been important to CSE. We understand the seriousness and sensitivity of privacy issues. We have physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards in place to protect customer information. We continually review our policies and practices, monitor our computer networks, and test the strength of our security in order to help us ensure the safety of customer information. If you have additional questions or would like more information, please send a request in writing to:
